DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1906.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THERE ISN'T A MAN IN TOWN
THAT WOULD BE WITHOUT A GAS RANGE

TODAY

IF HE HAD TO DO THE COOKING.

All for a quarter, Beechwood tonight, Fire-works and Vaudeville.

The Rev. M. B. Adams of Frankfort is to preach next Sunday at the Lewisburg Baptist Church.

Colonel W. W. Stubblefield of Rectorville has sent THE LEDGER an ear of corn which has as much whiskers as a Populist.

Elsewhere will be found the attractive program of Parks Hill Assembly, which is certainly one of the best ever offered the patrons of that most delightful resort. It goes without saying that Maysville and Mason county will send good delegations each day to this feast.

Ladies, have you seen our new line of Belt Buckles, Bracelets, Side and Back Combs, Hand Bags, Scarf and Stock Pins, Fobs and Chains, Dress Pins, Hat Pins? These goods are all positively new and stylish. You can see them in our show windows. Call and see them. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The best races that have ever been seen in West Virginia will be at the Huntington Driving Park, Huntington, W. Va., August 1st, 2d and 3d.

Rev. Mr. Calvert of near Louisville passed through the city Tuesday en route to Sardis to be at the bedside of his daughter, Mrs. Mac Calvert, who is dangerously ill.

The remains of Mrs. Grace Sherrill, nee Lightfoot, who died at Lafayette, Ind., passed through the city Monday night en route to Flemingsburg for interment. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock.

Officers Senteney and Bradford yesterday afternoon arrested a man, who gave his name as James Welsh, for selling "phony" rings to citizens of this city. It was learned that he had purchased the rings in this city for 10 cents apiece and had sold quite a number at prices ranging from 25 cents to 75 cents. After he was jailed it was learned that he had been run out of Portsmouth. He will have a hearing today.

TUB DRESSES FOR WOMEN : : : : : $1.79 AND $3.50

The dresses are white lawn or India linon, either plain or with small colored figures, made in a variety of styles; hemstitched gores, knee ruffles, full plaited skirts, waists tucked with lace, hemstitching or embroidery trimmings. Alterations made without extra charge. The $1.79 Dresses formerly sold for $3 and $4—the $3½ Dresses for $5 and $6. Fancy getting a pretty white frock made to fit for $1.79 or the very prettiest styles we carry for $3½. It exemplifies the Hunt policy of making dollars do double duty here.

ONLY A FEW.

Less than a half dozen of the $25 Silk Shirtwaist Suits left. No wonder when we've been selling them this month for $15. Beautifully tailored, excellent quality taffeta, dark colors for serviceable wear.

SILK AND ZEPHYR SHAWLS.

Exactly the shawls women want for cool evenings when a coat is too heavy but some shoulder protection is necessary. The Shawls are beautifully made in a variety of patterns. The silk are in cream or white at $1 to $5. The wool are in plain cream or white, also prettily bordered in color, at prices ranging from 75c to $2½.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Mason county are called to meet in Mass Convention at the Courthouse in Maysville on Saturday, August 11th, 1906, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of selecting Delegates to the Congressional Convention to be held at Ashland on August 15th, 1906.

W. D. COCHRAN,
Chairman Executive Committee Mason County.

It looks like the street contractors had started out with the idea that the people of Maysville were a bunch of greens.

THE Cincinnati Fall Festival Association is now "working" the innocent "country Editors" for $10 notices in return for a 25 cent ticket.

If the city authorities would only stop some of the altogether unnecessary whistling and bell-ringing indulged by C. and O. Engineers within the city limits, it would be more satisfactory than enforcing the speed limit.

HEREAFTER trains on the C. and O. will be required to observe the six-mile-an-hour limit in passing through the city. This will afford many of the "small boy" an opportunity to "hop on" and "hop off"—and get their arms and legs cut off. Just watch, and see how soon some of it will happen.

IN a varied experience as a practical mechanic, I have never yet known a single instance where the "cheapest" bid for a piece of work meant the "best" work; and the contract for the brick streets is one more evidence along this line. It is well to remember that the "best" is the "cheapest," and that the "cheapest" fellow is the one who will slight his work to get even.

S. C. Sayers, Clerk of the Kentucky House in 1860, is dead at Richmond, at the age of 80.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75¢. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The Delaware peach crop is, according to Isaac W. Mills, who has been making estimates of the crop of Delaware for nearly half a century, 200% greater than that of last year and 100% larger than any crop produced in the state for the last decade. He places the peach crop at 2,500,000 baskets, and the pear crop at 499,253 baskets. The great increase in the peach yield is attributed largely to the fact that spraying the trees has prevented disease among them and thus increased their yield.

With a decrease of 2,988 in the number of saloons, Ohio's new liquor license law yields $9,000,000 to the state—more than double the amount under the old law.

A DISPATCH from Galveston says carloads of human bones have been sold to American manufacturers of fertilizers. The arrest of two Mexicans at Guadalajara, charged with grave robbing, led to the discovery that an old cemetery near LaVega had been literally picked clean of its thousands of human skeletons. This may account, in some measure, for the appearance of so many sorts of strange weeds on American farms.

SAM JONES the Evangelist, whose unique vulgarisms from the pulpit have made him known from Bangor to Behring Sea and from Toronto to Texarkana, passed through Cincinnati a few days ago, halting only long enough to say—

"If I was in Cincinnati, do you know what I would do with Mayor DEMPSEY? Well, I will tell you. I would swap him for a yellow dog—and then I would kill the dog. In this way we could relieve the community of two things which are quite useless."

Failing to designate the mode of execution, it might yet be a question, from the SAM JONES standpoint, as to who would get the worst of the bargain—the dog or the people.

HIS BUNCH OF FIVES.

An Irishman was walking along a road alongside a links when he was suddenly struck between the shoulders with a golf ball, says The New York World. The force of the blow knocked him down, and when he got up he observed a golfer running toward him.

"Are you hurt?" queried the player. "Why didn't you get out of the way?"

"And why should I get out of the way?" asked Pat. "I didn't know there were any assassins around here."

"But I called 'fore,'" said the player, "and when I say 'fore' is that a sign for you to get out of the way?"

"Oh, it is, is it?" said Pat. "Well, thin, when I say 'foive' it's a sign that you are going to git hit on the nose. Foive."

Lexington is now a city of 50,000 people, as the ordinance recently passed by the General Council to annex the outlying territory for a half mile became a law Monday. The ordinance was protested against by numerous residents beyond the old city limits, and it is said that the matter will be carried to the Courts.

Governor Beckham has announced the appointment of Judge A. R. Burnam of Richmond as the Republican member of the Board of Election Commissioners, and of Judge C. R. McDowell of Danville as the Democratic member of that body. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals, ex-officio Chairman of the Board, will soon call a meeting to prepare for the Congressional elections to be held in the state the coming November.

Ruggles Campmeeting

Correspondence Public Ledger.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 31st, 1906.

All indications now point to a big religious awakening at this Campmeeting. The Christian workers seem to have it on their hearts the necessity of putting forth their most consecrated efforts for the salvation of those unacquainted with the essentials of Christianity, and to this end unusual interest is being manifested in the various services, and the testimony of all Christians is that this is proving a blessed Campmeeting. The services of Monday were evidence of this unusual interest. Rev. H. W. Bunton preached at the morning service and his earnest words were impressed upon his hearers in such a way that the testimony service, which followed, was the best of the year. The meeting was brought to a close before near all were through speaking.

The young people's service at 3 o'clock is increasing in interest and numbers and Dr. Baker announces that if the attendance continues to increase he will take us out under the trees for our "session of school" as he calls it, for he is drilling us in the learning of Bible verses. He says the trouble with most of us is that we have gotten too far away from the Bible and as far as he can help us in the matter he insists on us storing our minds with the scripture.

Dr. Oliver and wife of Covington arrived Monday and he had charge of the service last night, and so earnestly did he preach and exhort that several came to the altar at the invitation given. He will remain with us the remainder of the meeting and we are expecting great things through his efforts.

A special feature of last night's service was a trio sung by Dr. Oliver and wife and Dr. Baker.

Rev. E. L. Shepard, formerly of Maysville, now Pastor at one of our Covington Churches, arrived Monday and will be the Preacher at this morning's service.

Rev. John Cheap and family are spending today at Esculapio Springs.

Mr. I. M. Lane was called home on business today, and we learn that on his arrival there a telegram was awaiting him announcing the death of a near relative. He left immediately to be present at the funeral and will not be with us for several days again.

Miss Dorothy Best of Fernleaf fell from a horse last week and broke her ankle. She is well known in social circles here.

Roscoe Parker, a freight brakeman on the C. and O., was killed Monday night by being run over by No. 4 while asleep on the track. He lived near Concord and had been in the employ of the road only a short time.

The funeral of Thomas Pickett McDowell, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDowell, will occur at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of Dr. Thomas E. Pickett in Wall street, the Rev. Dr. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian Church conducting the services. The interment will be in Maysville Cemetery.

No plan for selecting a Democratic nominee in the Sixth Appellate District was decided upon Monday at a meeting of the Committee held in Lexington, it being held that this Committee had not been called together legally. Will A. Young, the Chairman, held that no election is legal until 1907.

Freight on the Ohio River

THE EARLIER TONNAGE OF THE OHIO.

Long before Fulton came to solve the problem of transportation by water, the Ohio was covered with flatboats and arks to the number of 2,000, according to Hall's Statistics of the West. The tonnage of the early days on the Ohio was enormous, for at that time the forests had not been destroyed and the volume of water in the streams furnished certain transportation for six months in the year, and often more. As an illustration of the great value of the Ohio in the early days, the following extract from an article appearing in The Pittsburgh Navigator of December, 1814, will show:

Thin Blood

"THE COMMERCE OF THE OHIO."

"We have been obligingly favored with a transcript from the books of Messrs. Nelson, Wade & Greatsinger of Louisville for two months, viz.: November 24th, 1810, to January 24th, 1811, showing 197 flat and 14 keel boats descending the falls of the Ohio. Cargoes of the above registered boats: 18,611 bbls. flour; 520 do. pork; 2,373 do. whisky; 3,759 do. apples; 1,085 cider; 4,443 lbs. of cheese; 59 bbls. of soap; 300 bales feathers; 400 bales hemp; 1,354 thread; 43 bbls. wine; 323 do. peach brandy; 46 do. cherry bounce; 15 do. vinegar; 143 do. porter; 62 do. beans; 200 gross bottles porter; 260 gals. Seneca oil; 15,216 lbs. butter; 180 do. tallow; 64,750 do. lard; 6,300 do. beef; 154,000 do. rope yarn; 681,900 do. pork in bulk; 20,784 do. bacon; 207,700 yards bagging; 4,619 do. tow cloth; 479 yds. tarred rope; 500 bu. oats; 1,700 do. corn; 216 do. potatoes; 817 hams; 4,609 lbs. bacon; 14,390 tame fowls; 155 horses; 286 slaves; 18,000 ft. cherry plank; 279,300 do. pine."

The showing made of the great trade of the Ohio Valley undoubtedly had its effect when, in 1827, the Federal Government undertook the work of improving the Ohio.

WHAT IS THE TONNAGE OF TODAY?

As to the tonnage of the stream today, reference is had to the recent report of Major J. G. Warren, U. S. A. Engineer Corps, in which the tonnage of the Ohio is given at 13,163,156 tons for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1906, with the total number of passengers carried at 4,193,971. But that the tonnage is necessarily approximated, is demonstrated by the urgent request of the United States Board of Engineers for complete statistics, and they are obtainable only from the shippers using the Ohio as a means of finding a market and receiving their supplies in return.

If the tonnage statistics of the Ohio were considered as of value to the shippers of 1810, how much more valuable they are today need not be stated for it is the tonnage that fixes its value as a highway of trade and of commerce.

The great importance of the statistics has already been pointed out in these columns—but promptness in furnishing them is of equal importance, for it will not be long before Congress will convene and the question of values of the respective rivers and harbors of the country will be taken up.

The Sixth Appellate Democratic District Committee will meet in this city Saturday to select a time and choose a place to hold a Convention to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this the Sixth Appellate District. It is quite likely that Maysville will be selected as the place.

The Gazette notes that a couple of natives of Fleming county, noted for their longevity, are two brothers, Christopher and Solomon Hester, the former now living in Kansas and the latter in Iowa. They left Fleming in 1835, and are uncles of Sam Jones of Flemingsburg, himself now in his 79th year. Christopher Hester at present is 104 years of age, and his brother is 95. Besides being uncles of Sam Jones, they are uncles of Rev. Dwight Hillis, the noted Minister of New York.

Mississippi rivers to Cairo, The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says:

"Chairman Burton, of the House Rivers and Harbors Committee, says that the appropriation bill which he will report next winter will call for $75,000,000, but that none of this will go for deep water between the Lakes and the Mississippi. Probably Mr. Burton will change his mind before his bill reaches the House. St. Louis, Chicago and the rest of the big towns in this vicinity are setting at work to get a beginning made this winter in the Lake-to-the-Gulf project, and are likely to bring sufficient pressure to make the Rivers and Harbors Committee notice."

If Mr. Burton said that he said it because the future policy of Rivers and Harbors appropriations is to be based on the demand of the country in aid of the work, with the allotments of the appropriations to be made on the merit of the stream or of the harbor. In other words, Chairman Burton proposes to act in sincere accord with the new and the enlightened policy out of which only the best results must come.

ON WHAT THE IMPROVEMENT DEPENDS.

While St. Louis is not to be blamed for desiring to advance her interests, it is equally true that the shippers using the Ohio and desiring its improvement to a nine-foot stage from Pittsburgh to Cairo, should follow in the line of the new policy, and by furnishing statistics of their shipments, when called upon to do so, to aid the Board of Engineers in the demonstration of what is an undoubted fact—that the tonnage of the Ohio was not limited to 13,163,156 tons during the fiscal year of 1905-06, but that it is far more probable it was nearly double that amount.

The shippers of the Ohio Valley know the fact—but the Board of Engineers desires figures. The important thing is prompt compliance when called upon for the figures of the present tonnage of the Ohio, and they should be as complete as they were given by Messrs. Nelson, Wade & Greatsinger in 1814.

In his will Christopher Meyer of New Brunswick, N. J., in 1893 left $100,000 to be invested and given to his grand-daughter, Ellen Rowena Meyer. The money was at once invested in bonds and mortgages, and now, after thirteen years, Miss Meyer has reached 21 years of age, and has been given $202,823, the bequest having been more than doubled.
